LET'S TALK NUMBERS

At IM Designs, we believe that design is not just about creating something that looks nice, but it's about creating something that works and serves its purpose. That's why we work closely with our clients to understand their business goals and objectives, and we use that knowledge to inform the designs we create. This approach ensures that every project we take on is tailored to the specific needs of our clients, and helps us to deliver designs that are both aesthetically pleasing and effective.

Seller hung in there with me to make sure my Google Search Console errors got fixed. All submitted errors have today been accepted by Google. We had a misunderstanding, but the seller quickly resolved, and we were back on track. Thanks!

I was nervous on sourcing a seller for this job as I made previous attempts before and was a bit uneasy as this was new to me. I took a chance with Kuldeep of Localstrategist and this was the best decision I made. He took my healthy score to 100% and worked with me professionally on any questions I had. He took the time to shift through my uncertainties and delivered a phenomenal experience. I HAVE NO HESITATION IN RECOMMENDING HIS SERVICE and would be working with him on my SEO as he has built trust with me. See less
